Who We Are – Avangard Group

Avangard Group is a UK-based agency that helps students and young professionals study, work, and grow internationally. We offer university placements, internships, language programs, summer schools and camps, travel, work, and more — in over 22 countries including the UK, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Japan, and beyond. As a British Council certified education agency, we provide expert guidance and trusted support at every step. Whether you want to study abroad, join a summer camp, or work overseas for a season or a full year, we're here to guide you.

Why Choose Avangard Group?

We provide real opportunities for studying, working, and traveling worldwide. Our network of universities, employers, and educational institutions ensures that you have access to the best programs tailored to your goals. With expert guidance at every step, we help you find the right country, the right program, and the right experience to shape your future.

Global Experiences, Real Impact

Studying and working abroad isn't just about getting a degree or earning a paycheck, it's about growing as a person, gaining real-world experience, and building a future without limits.

A global education or work opportunity gives you the chance to step outside your comfort zone, meet people from different cultures, and develop skills that set you apart. Whether it's studying at a top university, working in an exciting new country, or joining a cultural exchange program, every experience you gain opens doors to new possibilities.

At Avangard Group, we believe that the world is full of opportunities for those who are ready to take them. We make it easier for you to find the right path, explore new destinations, and shape your future on your own terms.
